"Westward the course of empire takes its way,
The four first acts already past,
A fifth shall close the drama with the day,
Time's noblest offspring is the last."

CITIZENS OF WILLARD:

Berkeley, a truly great city, "built upon a hill," a place where founders' ideals and dreams have been transmuted into homes, a cultural center which is ours to cherish and to promote, to keep great, and to make greater. With you, the leaders of tomorrow, I wish to share a great thought from Walt Whitman:

Nothing endures but personal qualities.
What do you think endures?
Do you think a great city endures?
Or a teeming manufacturing state? or a prepared constitution? or the best built steamships?
Or hotels of granite and iron? or any chef-d'oeuvres of engineering, forts, armaments?

Away! these are not to be cherished for themselves,
They fill their hour, the dancers dance, the musicians play for them,
The show passes, all does well enough of course,
All does very well till one flash of defiance.

A great city is that which has the greatest men and women,
If it be a few ragged huts it is still the greatest city in the whole world.

"What Endures?"—Walt Whitman.

C. K. HAYES, Principal.

FROM WILLARD'S PRESIDENT:

"Our best—no less" has been our slogan, and Willard has aimed to live up to it. We have been constantly inspired in the fulfillment of this aim by the beauties and the many civic and educational advantages afforded us in this city in which we live, Berkeley.

Willard dedicates this issue of the "Target" to this city and wishes to express its sincere thanks and appreciation to City Manager Chester C. Fisk for the privilege of using the design of the City Seal on the title page and to the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce for our Berkeley pictures.

DAVID AMBROSE.

BERKELEY, MY HOME, MY OWN

Wide green hills rise into the sky,
While nestled close to their sides,
Is a city of peace and harmony
Where friendliness ever abides.

Birds joyously sing in trees lining the streets,
On the campus' green grounds we may roam,
But it's love and happiness lingering there
That make Berkeley my home, my own.

ANN HUTCHINSON.

OUR BERKELEY

We gaze upon the rolling hills,
We look across the bay.
We watch Aurora's chariot
And see the close of day.

We watch the big ships come and go,
Their wakes the waters churn.
We see the seagulls flying high.
They dive, they wheel, they turn.

But best of all we like to see
The places near and dear,
Our homes and churches, schools and parks,
And factories in full gear.

We walk along our Berkeley streets
And talk to passers-by.
We know a victory's coming,
And there'll be a brighter sky.

ELMER WHEELER.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Council and Senate have striven to measure up to their responsibilities. They stabilized the cleanup spirit, guided Willard's Junior Red Cross efforts, played an efficient part in the sugar rationing registration, and intensified the spirit of loyalty and cooperation in the student assemblies which they sponsored.

COUNCIL

BERKELEY DOES ITS PART

Berkeley's a town of the brave and the free,
Where all of us, that means you and me,
Are doing our part this very day,
Doing our part in our own best way.

Some are buying Bonds and Stamps.
Some are planting Victory plants.
No matter what, we all pitch in,
So that we of America can win.

Student Control

Chief of Police John Andrews urges the observance of all traffic rules. David Weaver's winning safety jingle is a warning:

WATCH OUT

Do you dash about the corridors,
And teachers do you hit?
I really think you're old enough
To do your helping bit.
And, when at last you're finally caught,
Do you cry and sulk and pout?
Yes? Well—the Goblins will get you
If you don't watch out.

EVERY SHOULDER TO THE WHEEL

In every house and up and down,
On the streets of our home town,
Loyal Berkeleyans do their part,
Keeping cheer in America's heart.

Soldier, sailor, and marine
On Berkeley's streets are often seen,
Protecting the land of the brave and the free,
Displaying the flag we love to see.

Every shoulder to the wheel
Soon will make our efforts real
In this war until we've won.
Your task and my task have just begun!

Berkeley

From the green covered hills beneath the big "C"
Down to a great bridge, the bay's silver key,
Here lie beauty, commerce, and wealth,
Scholastic fame, and civic health.

This a city where freedom starts,
The envy and yen of all other hearts.
This is Berkeley, my home and yours,
Berkeley, where sunshine and happiness score.

DIZZY DATES

January 26
As the old term went, the new one began
With the "Pledge" to our flag and our best for Uncle Sam.

January 27
Cafeteria manners demand much poise.
That means forks, not fingers, no scraps, less noise.

January 28
We dropped our dimes and dollars into the Wishing Well,
And wished the crippled children might soon again feel swell.

February 2
Our Willardites' sportsmanship ranks very high.
When we played El Cerrito, our team sure did try.

February 7
Big dolls and small ones, foreign ones—look, do!
The dolls that day were on parade. The boys took glimpses too.

February 9
Clocks whipped ahead. One hour gone!
Daylight Savings pranced speedily on.

February 9
Bean shooters and matches were watched with concern
For teachers said pupils were at Willard to learn.

February 11
The Valentine Dance! Wear your heart on your sleeve.
Your best girl you've dated? Swell! Believe me she's pleased.

February 16
We have bought many Stamps. We are buying them still.
To share in America's victory is every student's will.

February 18
At assembly Willard's officers and grade prexies too
Told of Lincoln and Washington and heroes true blue.

February 23
Smiles and jokes passed to old friends and new
At the Big Sister Party for the many, not the few.

February 25
Dig in your pockets. That dollar's just sublime!
Give to the Red Cross while there's still time.

February 27
The Rally Committee put on a noon dance.
While couples were drifting, it dealt in finance.

February 27
Those who like birds and delight in their way
In the aud. saw those "tweet-tweets" at work and at play.

March 2
The First Aid Class had a meeting today.
Breaks, cuts, and burns they quickly allay.

March 5
"Buy your 'Target' right now" was the popular cry.
And the "Target" sales boomed, as we hoped, to the sky.

March 6
At the Scholarship Assembly brains galore were met
To receive those gold pins which they earned, you bet!

March 9
Watch the birdie and grin now, quick!
The High Nines squirmed as the camera clicked.

March 10
Knuckle down, buckle down, and use your fertile brains.
How comes it, High Eights grand and game, ye found that test a strain?

March 13
"My Mamma done tol' me" the faculty won
Over the students in basketball fun.

March 16
Well, dip me in rubber and call me precious.
With rubber bands now it pays to be cautious.

March 17
Around the school was Ireland's green.
In St. Patrick's Day fun it reigned supreme.

March 20
Those who knew how to skate and those not so hot
Went to Iceland for fun. Some stood up—some did not.

March 24
The girls of the Low and High Eight all exclaimed,
"Wonderful World!" at a party for same.

March 30
Is everybody happy that Willard is out?
It's Easter Vacation! Let's be going. Shout, shout!

April 8
Our counselor presented the subject on hand.
Yes, Low Ten Programs were the great demand.

April 10
"Americans All" was the film that told
That the Good Neighbor Policy is as good as gold.

April 10
Do not climb the cherry tree just to get some fruit.
You might get a whippin' and a stomach-ache to boot.

April 15
Those May Queen candidates proved to us
That beauty and Willard deserve A "plus."

April 16
Blankets, jars, bottles, salt, boxes, and soap
Poured in for "Emergency." No need, let's hope.

April 17
Athletic awards were presented to those
Who chose sports as a pastime and kept on their toes.

April 20
Willard's Variety brought forth a display
Of talent abundant in fullest array.

April 21
The Senior Committee stepped forth in a play.
Those gals "At the Fountain" were professional, I'll say.

April 27
The Cleanup Campaign started off with a bang!
Each pupil a-striving to win for his gang.

May 1
Hard times a-plenty, the colors so gay,
The May Queen so beautiful, that was our Spring Day.

May 16
On May the sixteenth a pet show came 'round.
They wiggled and squealed and rolled on the ground.

May 22
The Musical Organizations were thrilled to the bone.
As Mr. Hayes' guests their music outshone.

May 28
The election finals were held. Oh say!
And the sifting was done without delay.

May 29
The W.G.L.'s installed today
Their elected favorites in a solemn way.

June 5
Old officers were ousted, the new put in.
With all such officers we're sure to win.

June 11
The High Nine Party was loud and gay.
All classmates shouted, "Oh Happy Day!"

June 12
To Class of '42, at work or play,
Willard's best for good luck each day, each way.
Class of '42, hip! hip! hooray!

Echoes of Spring Day

Spring Day dawned in best Willard style,
With sunshine and flowers and happy smiles.
May's Queen held the sceptre and led the parade
With a bevy of beauties, most charming young maids.
Festivities gay and mirth held full sway.
It was voted by all a most perfect day.

QUEEN OF MAY—Peggy Hoyt. ATTENDANTS OF THE QUEEN—Faye Beattie, Norma Beery, Patricia Bramming, Delight Downs, Dorothy Eastwood, Lois Grosh, Joyce Jaeger, Betty Ann Mackay, Sally Miller, Susan Munson, Virginia Smith, Eulalia Vering, Coleena Wade, Ruth Wood.

Berkeley's Seasons

It's springtime in Berkeley
When buds are drawing bees,
When birds have left their winter nests,
And trees are sprouting leaves.

It's summertime in Berkeley
When days are warm and long,
When butterflies flit here and there,
And crickets sing their song.

It's autumn time in Berkeley
When breezy north winds blow,
When leaflets don their autumn coats,
And signs of summer go.

It's winter time in Berkeley
When ends the seasons' round,
When peace on earth, good will to men,
Within all hearts abound.

DIPSY DASHES

1. Now don't look sad 'cause school's begun.
   Study hard, little girl, and the battle's half won.

2. He's under the desk for safety's sake.
   During an air raid he's wide awake.

3. Gee, gosh! don't you fumble or we'll sure take a flop.
   A drop in the basket and we'll wiggle the mop.

4. You can foxtrot, twostep, and jitterbug too
   And dance with your friend—Ouch! that was my shoe.

5. A bandage here and a broomstick there—
   The First Aid Corps will take good care.

6. Jump those hurdles and jump them high.
   A nice, big hand if you touch the sky.

7. These gleesters sang their melodies,
   Their songs you may recall.
   'Twas at the last Spring Concert,
   Applause rang for them all.

8. He scattered paper and scraps everywhere.
   The cops sought him, caught him.
   Now knee pads he wears.

9. Sodas and sundaes and cokes Joe fixed.
   "At the Fountain" that jerk was sure in a mix.

10. Around and around in that dizzy dance
    At the Fiesta she held all in a trance.

11. May Queen and dance and rags on parade
    Meant frolic and mirth for all Willard babes.

12. Bring your skates or rent them.
    She knew how to pose.
    "Just my luck," I hear you say,
    "To balance on my nose."

13. "Target" pictures, strike a pose!
    Give a smile. Don't dare doze!

14. Grasping diplomas, formalities over,
    The High Nines now think they sure are in clover.
